President's Message

Already April is with us, bringing the anticipation of Easter, Anzac Day and meetings with friends and family. With the floods behind us (although the effects remain), and with Covid becoming an unfortunate part of our daily lives, perhaps we can take time to reflect upon the role Chapel Hill VIEW Club has played in The Smith Family which turns 100 this year. For more than 30 years, CHVC has provided a friendship group for women in some of Brisbane's western suburbs while also providing material assistance to The Smith Family, more recently as direct financial aid for disadvantaged school children supported in the Learning for Life program. Just as The Smith Family has changed during its 100 years, Chapel Hill VIEW Club has adapted to changing times and challenges. Now, however, as some of our long-time members have left, it's important for us to attract new members, and to provide them with happy, meaningful experiences in the company of some wonderful women. Why not invite a friend to a lunch meeting? Perhaps you have ideas for outings, interest groups, entertaining speakers? Our newly inducted Committee would love to have your feedback.
