

VIEW “Making a Difference” Award

Is there a member of your club deserving of national recognition? If so we would like to hear about them.

VIEW National Executive and National Council are inviting all clubs to recognise and acknowledge a member who is living our VIEW values /guiding principles by nominating them for a “Making a Difference” Award

On a quarterly basis up to five members will receive a letter of acknowledgement from VIEW Executive, be recognised on the VIEW website and will be added to our VIEW member honour roll at National Convention 2019.

Nomination Criteria

A member who is role modelling one or more of VIEW’s values (guiding principles) above and beyond the normal expectations:

- Inclusive and welcoming
- Diverse and respecting
- Supportive and caring
- Locally focused while nationally active
- Collaborative and future looking

And/Or

A member who has made a significant contribution to VIEW’s vision and mission.

Vision: Women creating and leading a more inclusive Australian society

Mission: As a leading voice and valued support network for women, VIEW creates social capital in Australian communities

Club Nomination Process

1. Club members discuss and decide on a suitable member nominee.

Club then completes the Nomination form (see attached):

- Explain who the nominee is
- How long have they been a member?
- How their actions, have displayed VIEW’s values/guiding principles. What have they achieved (25-50 words)
- Why you think they are deserving of this award
