

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

PERMITS

Permit not required for any raffle where the total value of prizes is less than $2,500.

PRIZES

No tobacco products in any form.

No restrictions on alcohol (but tickets cannot be sold to anyone under 18years).

TICKETS

No discounting of tickets is allowed.

If more than one prize is being offered, the major prize should be drawn first.

For raffles where individual prize is under $2500, no details are required to be printed on tickets.

Where individual prizes are over $2500, tickets must contain:

- the permit number
- the name of the organisation (The Smith Family)
- the ticket price
- the description of each prize and its value
- where and when the raffle is to be drawn
- where the winners will be published

Ticket stubs must be retained for at least 12 months after draw.

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.

Note: Braidwood, Bungendore, Cooma, Crookwell, Goulburn, Lake George, Queanbeyan and Yass VIEW Clubs in Area AA should refer to the raffle legislation for New South Wales.

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

NEW SOUTH WALES

PERMITS

Permit not required where total value of prizes does not exceed $30,000.

PRIZES

No cash prizes over $2,000.

No tobacco products in any form.

No Firearms, ammunition or prohibited weapons

No more than 20 litres of alcohol, beer or wine. Tickets cannot be sold to anyone less than 18 years.

No Cosmetic Surgery or other procedure designed to improve personal appearance

TICKETS

Tickets can be sold at a discount (e.g. $1 each or 3 for $2) only if this is fully disclosed at the beginning of the raffle and is advertised either on the ticket and/or at the point of sale.

If more than one prize is being offered, the major prize should be the first drawn.

The following information must be advertised to buyers (this can be done on the ticket)

- the organisation (The Smith Family)
- the ticket price
- when and where the raffle is to be drawn
- where the winners will be published

Ticket butts must be retained for at least three months after the draw.

Note: Wodonga VIEW Club in Area NL should refer to the raffle legislation for Victoria.

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

QUEENSLAND

PERMITS

Permit not required where the gross proceeds are less than $50,000.

PRIZES

No money prizes over $10,000.

No tobacco prizes in any form.

No more than $1000 worth of alcohol and tickets cannot be bought or sold by anyone under 18 years.

TICKETS

Tickets can be sold at a discount (e.g. $1 each or 3 for $2) only if this is fully disclosed at the beginning of the raffle and is advertised either on the ticket and/or at the point of sale.

If more than one prize is being offered, the major prize should be drawn first.

Ticket butts must have the name and contact details of ticket buyer.

Where GROSS proceeds are over $2000, tickets must have:

- the ticket number
- the organisation (The Smith Family)
- the ticket price
- contact name/number of permit holder
- a description of each prize and value
- when and where the raffle is to be drawn
- where the winner will be published

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

PERMITS

Permit not required where total value is less than $5000.

PRIZES

No tobacco products in any shape or form.

No restriction on alcohol (but tickets cannot be bought or sold to anyone under 18 years).

No Firearms, ammunition or prohibited weapons

No more than 20 litres of alcohol, beer or wine. Tickets cannot be sold to anyone less than 18 years.

No Cosmetic Surgery or other procedure designed to improve personal appearance

TICKETS

No discounting of tickets allowed.

If more than one prize, the major prize should be drawn first.

For tickets sold on the day and prizes under $5000, no details are required to be printed on tickets (coat check tickets are acceptable) however the prices and prizes must be advertised somewhere.

For tickets not sold on the same day, printed on ticket must be organisation name, date, time and place of drawing, name, address and phone number of ticket purchaser.

Where prizes are over $2000, tickets must contain:

- the permit number
- the organisation (The Smith Family)
- the ticket price
- contact name/number of permit holder
- a description of each prize and its value
- when and where the raffle is to be drawn
- where the winners will be published

Ticket stubs must be retained for at least 12 months after draw.

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.

Note Sunraysia VIEW Club in Area SA should refer to the raffle legislation for Victoria.

Updated 2018

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

VICTORIA

PERMITS

Permit not required where total value of prizes is less than $5,000 and the tickets will be sold within a three month time frame.

PRIZES

No tobacco products in any form.

No restrictions on alcohol (but tickets cannot be sold to anyone under 18 years)

TICKETS

Discounting of tickets is discouraged.

If more than one prize is being offered, the major prize should be drawn first.

Tickets must contain the name of;

- the organisation (TSF)
- the ticket price
- the description of each prize and value
- where and when the raffle will be drawn
- where the winners will be published

Tickets may only be sold for a maximum of 3 months before the draw.

Ticket stubs must be retained for at least three months after draw.

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.

Disclaimer: this document is intended only as a general guidelines only.
Questions should be directed to the relevant regulating authority.

Overview of State Raffle Legislation

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

PERMITS

A permit is required when your club intends to sell lottery (ie raffle) tickets to the public for more than one day a standard lottery.

PRIZES

No tobacco products of any form.

No restrictions on alcohol (but tickets cannot be bought or sold to anyone under 18 years).

TICKETS

No discounting of tickets allowed.

If more than one prize is being offered, the major prize should be drawn first.

Tickets must contain:

- the permit number
- the organisation (The Smith Family)
- the ticket price
- contact name/number of permit holder
- the description of each prize and its value
- where and when the raffle will be drawn
- where the winners will be published

Ticket butts must be retained for at least 12 months after draw.

Over all it must be known that street raffles require a council permit and permission from National Office

Food handling policy must be applied to any prizes containing food products, e.g. hampers.