

INVITATION

Roundtable

“What impacts economic and financial security for all women in Australia”

Wednesday, 13th November 2019
9:45 am for 10 am to 1 pm
Southport Golf Club
Slatyer Avenue, Southport Qld 4215

Join economic Security4Women (eS4W) and enhance the conversation with:

AFA Inspire, Australian Graduate Women,
Queensland Graduate Women Gold Coast,

Sue Graham, Multicultural Communities Council Gold Coast,

Dr Kerry Bodle, recipient of Griffith University Indigenous Outstanding Alumni award 2019 and Pip Coore on “The Emergence of Family Care Agreements in an Ageing World”

GUEST SPEAKER

eS4W economist in residence

Stephen Koukoulas

Presents eS4W’s White Paper

“The impact the Cost of Care has on Economic Security for All Women living in Australia”

Policy recommendations to boost women’s economic security

The current policy approach to childcare, superannuation, education, jobs and financial literacy is not keeping up with changes in social attitudes, structural changes in the economy and demographic changes.

LIMITED SPACE

RSVP by 5th November 2019 to Nicole Williams

admin@security4women.org.au

(Subject Line: Gold Coast Roundtable advise name, organisation, dietary and access requirements)