Welcome to this Month's Aspley VIEW Club Luncheon
Wednesday 22 June 2022

At the luncheon meeting today we will be:

Getting in Touch with our Learning for Life Students

Please welcome our Speaker today
Lyall Aldridge – QA01 Zone Councillor

Lyall Aldridge is the 2022-23 VIEW Zone QA01 Councillor. She joined Brendale Evening VIEW Club in 2003 after hearing about VIEW and The Smith Family from an aunty and will receive her 20-year badge in 2023. She has held many committee positions including President, Secretary, Delegate and Publicity Officer. She was QA01 Zone Councillor in 2009-2010 in which role she learnt many new personal skills. She was the inaugural founder of the Zone's annual walk with VIEW in 2009 and is proud that it has continued through the years in raising awareness of VIEW and The Smith Family. Today Lyall will bring us up to date on our Zone and Area information and how we have succeeded in being a healthy section of VIEW and supporter of The Smith Family.

Learning for Life

In 1997, EDU-CATE became a full sponsorship model and was renamed Learning for Life. By 1999, there were 7,000 students enrolled in the program.

Today

The Smith Family is now Australia's largest children's education charity, working with 179,760 children and young people in need in 90 communities and 736 partner schools across the country. More than 14,000 VIEW Club members around Australia support The Smith Family.
